Privacy Notice

How we use Governors' and other Volunteers' Information

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals working with the school in a voluntary capacity, including Governors.

The Russell School, (the School) is the 'Data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

We have appointed Grow Education Partners Ltd as our data protection officer (DPO) and the responsible contact is David Coy (see 'Contact us' below).

1. The Personal Data we process

Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not limited to:

- Personal information (such as name, date of birth, next of kin, dependents, marital status)
- Contact details (such as telephone number, email address, postal address, for you and your emergency contacts)
- Protected characteristics (such as trade union membership, nationality, language, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, health and religion or belief, where this has been provided)
- Relevant medical information (such as physical or mental health conditions, including for any disabilities which the organisation needs to make any reasonable adjustments to fulfil its duty of care)
- Qualifications, and employment records (such as work history, job titles, references, training records and professional memberships)
- Outcomes of any disciplinary and/or grievance procedures, including any warning issues to you and related correspondence
- Governor performance information (Such as meeting attendance, visits, roles, and leadership responsibilities)

- Ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for volunteers who require them
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing
- Respond to any school workforce issues
- Undertake statutory reporting to the Department for Education.

3. Our lawful basis for using this data

This section contains information about the legal basis that we are relying on when handling your information. These are defined under data protection legislation and for personally identifiable information are:

- Processing is necessary to fulfil a contract with you
- You have given consent for one or more specific purposes
- Processing is necessary to comply with the school's legal obligations
- Processing is necessary to protect your vital interests
- Processing is necessary for tasks in the public interest or exercise of authority vested in the controller (the provision of education).
- Processing is necessary for the school's legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party.

When we process special category information, which is deemed to be more sensitive, the following lawful basis are used:

- You have given explicit consent
- Employment, social security, and social protection
- It is necessary to fulfil the school's obligations or your obligations
- It is necessary to protect your vital interests
- Processing is carried out by a foundation or not-for-profit organisation (includes religious, political, or philosophical organisations and trade unions)
- Reasons of public interest around public health.

Where we have obtained consent to use personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

4. Collecting this data

While the majority of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

5. How we store this data

Personal data is stored in accordance with our Data Retention policy.

We retain personal information about all volunteers. This information is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your work with the school.

When your relationship with the school has ended, we will retain and dispose of your personal information in accordance with our Data Retention Schedule. A copy of this can be obtained by contacting School Office (info@russell.richmond.sch.uk).

6. Who we share data with

In order for us to legally, effectively and efficiently function we are required to share data with appropriate third parties, including but not limited to:

- The Department for Education- to meet our legal obligations to share certain information.
- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as details of governors
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as governor support and IT services
- Training centres and awarding bodies-in order to share information and feedback on your performance.
- Your families and representatives- such as in the event of an emergency
- Our auditors to ensure compliance with our legal obligations
- Trade Unions and Professional Associations - to enable them to provide the service their members require
- Professional advisers and consultants - for us to develop our services and best provide our public service
- Employment & recruitment agencies and future employers - to support reference requests
- Police forces, courts, tribunals, security organisations- to create a secure workplace for all at the school.
- Charities and voluntary organisations.

7. Transferring data internationally

We may send your information to other countries when:

- we or a company we work with store information on computer servers based overseas; or
- we communicate with you when you are overseas.

We conduct due diligence on the companies we share data with and note whether they process data in the UK, EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland) or outside of the EEA.

The UK and countries in the EEA are obliged to adhere to the requirements of the GDPR and have equivalent legislation which confer the same level of protection to your personal data.

For organisations who process data outside the UK and EEA we will assess the circumstances of how this occurs and ensure there is no undue risk.

Additionally, we will assess if there are adequate legal provisions in place to transfer data outside of the UK

8. Why we share your data

In order to successfully perform our key functions, we need to share personal data with organisations for example we share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. Under s.538 of the Education Act 1996, and the Academies Financial Handbook, the Secretary of State requires boards to provide certain details they hold about people involved in governance, as volunteered by individuals, and the information kept up to date.

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

9. Data Protection Rights

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we can:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- NOT provide information where it compromises the privacy of others
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

In most cases, we will respond to subject access requests within 1 month, as required under data protection legislation. However, we are able to extend this period by up to 2 months for complex requests or exceptional circumstances.

Your Other Rights regarding your Data

You may:

- Withdraw your consent to processing at any time (this only relates to data for which the school relies on consent as a lawful basis for processing)
- Ask us to rectify, erase or restrict processing of your personal data, or object to the processing of it in certain circumstances and where sufficient supporting evidence is supplied
- Prevent the use of your personal data for direct marketing
- Challenge processing which has been justified on the basis of public interest, official authority or legitimate interests.
- Request a copy of agreements under which your personal data is transferred outside of the United Kingdom.
- Object to decisions based solely on automated decision making or profiling (decisions taken with no human involvement, that might negatively affect you)
- Request a cease to any processing that is likely to cause damage or distress
- Be notified of a data breach in certain circumstances
- Refer a complaint to the ICO
- Ask for your personal data to be transferred to a third party in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format (in certain circumstances)

The School will comply with the Data Protection legislation in regard to dealing with all data requests submitted in any format, although individuals are asked to preferably submit their request in written format to assist with comprehension.

Requests should include:

- Name of individual
- Correspondence address

- Contact number and email address
- Details of the request

If you would like to exercise any of the rights or requests listed above, please contact the School Office

- Email: info@russell.richmond.sch.uk
- Phone: 02089401446
- Post: The Russell School, Petersham Road, Richmond upon Thames, TW10 7AH

We reserve the right to verify the requesters' identity by asking for Photo ID. If this proves insufficient, then further ID may be required.

Article 22 of the UK GDPR has additional rules to protect individuals from decisions made solely for the purpose of automated decision-making and profiling. The school does not carry out any automated decision-making and/or profiling on Governors or volunteers.

10. Data Protection Breaches

If you suspect that your or someone else's data has been subject to unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction or damage, we ask that you please contact the School Office and advise us without undue delay.

11. Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

To make a complaint, please contact our independent data protection officer David Coy (contactable on david.coy@london.anglican.org or 020 3837 5145).

Alternatively, you can refer a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:
